A GOOD SIGN.

Advices from the East are the effect that general business conditions are rapidly improving, that capital is becoming more confident and that investors are looking for new openings for the employment of their surplus capital.

All of which augurs much for the prosperity of the country in general during 1910, and perhaps for the mining industry in particular. For there is certainly no other industry which is so peculiarly susceptible to adverse conditions in the money market, or one in which investors are so easily affected by a general depression, as is that of mining. During times of stringency, it seems, men will continue to dabble in railroad and industrial stocks, and they will cut out mining ones, whether they be good, bad or indifferent—they are all treated alike.

So the news that comes from the Eastern centers is cheering to those of us who are located in this Western mining country. The partly developed mining properties and promising prospects in this region on which all work has stopped, because of lack of adequate capital for development purposes, are legion in number, and in this part of the country when there is a slump in the mining business there follows naturally a slump all along the line.

For this reason among others Nevada has as much cause for congratulation over the improved business outlook as any other part of the country. Let us hope that the promised good times may not get lost in the shuffle before they reach the Far West.

A SUGGESTION?

Tomorrow will witness the advent of the New Year and every person in Tonopah should start 1910 right. In order to do this follow the footsteps of a great many residents of this city by sending in your order for The Bonanza and the San Francisco Bulletin. The two papers delivered in Tonopah for $1.25 a month. Why take one when you can secure two for the same price?

JUST TOMMYROT THAT'S ALL.

Now that Tom Lockhart has taken the helm of the Nye & Ormsby bank as receiver, the depositors may look forward to the day when they will begin to receive some return on their funds that have been in jitters by a series of incompetent receivers whose course work has led to the interference of the courts on three different occasions.—Goldfield Tribune.

The "mudhens" are to be barred from the floor of the San Francisco stock exchange hereafter. They are the women who have for years gambled in mining stock. It would have saved them and their families untold misery and hardship if the exchange had banished them and the brokers who took their pitiful savings and scrapings years ago.

MANAGER OF BELMONT VISITS IN GOLDFIELD

REPORTED THAT BRADY WILL JOIN FORCES WITH ELY-GOLDFIELD ROAD.

Yesterday morning's issue of the Goldfield Tribune contains the following article relative to the visit of S. H. Brady to that city.

Malcolm Macdonald and Superintendent Brady of the Tonopah Belmont property at Tonopah were visitors to Goldfield yesterday. The gentlemen came over by machine and were met as claims regarding the significance of their visit. They declared "they just come over" but the fact that a meeting with certain parties from the East suggested to the casual observer that, maybe, there was more to the visit than the mere "joy" ride.

It is currently reported that Mr. Brady has joined fortunes with the Ely-Goldfield railroad after a long and prosperous connection with the Tonopah-Belmont.

CONDITION OF MINER REGARDED AS SERIOUS

Grave fears were entertained yesterday and last night regarding the recovery of James Burns, the Montana miner who recently lost his arm by blood poisoning. Throughout the day his condition was regarded as being extremely critical, but at an early hour this morning advices from the hospital were to the effect that the patient was resting comfortably and appeared to be somewhat improved.

BIG DOINGS AT BIG CASINO FOR NEW YEARS

HUMPHREYS AND STEFFINS WILL FIGHT TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

A day and night of sport is being planned at the Big Casino for New Years. Two fights will be pulled off during the afternoon to be followed by a matinee and in the evening there will be a grand masquerade. The bouts are scheduled to be between Sid Humphreys of Los Angeles and Joe Steffins. Steffins met with a little hard luck during the Christmas day encounter, and is hot after Humphreys' scalp, claiming that he can put the Los Angeles representative out in three rounds. This is bound to be an interesting encounter. The preliminary will be between Billy Martin and Kid Pearce, both clever fighters, who have no aversion to mixing it.

JAKE GOODFRIEND GIVES A PRIZE

Jake Goodfriend, at the Butler theater, announced yesterday that he would give one month's free admission to the most originally dressed married woman at the masquerade at Miners' Exchange hall this evening. The pass will admit the lady, her husband, and children, should there be any of the latter.
